Youth Staff Agreement

Cub Scout Summer Day Camp welcomes and appreciates the help that you have volunteered to give us this year. We feel that a thorough understanding of camp policies and staff operations is necessary in order to have a happy and rewarding Day Camp experience. Our purpose is for this day camp to operate smoothly and efficiently, and we want to make you aware of camp rules and policies.

Youth Staff members are often looked up to by our Cub Scout Day Campers. The example the Youth Staff members set for these Scouts influence them either positively or negatively, as the case may be. We want you to set the best example possible through personal neatness, language, manners, and any other conduct that could influence the Scouts. We request that you display a positive attitude, adhere to camp dress codes, and be conscious of the language that you use around the day campers.

1. You should use the following guiding principles when dealing with the campers individually or as a group.

Scout Oath	Scout Law	Cub Scout Motto	Outdoor Code
On my honor, I will do my best, to do my duty to God and my country, to obey the Scout Law, to help other people at all times and to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight.	A scout is Trustworthy, Loyal, Helpful, Friendly, Courteous, Kind, Obedient, Cheerful, Thrifty, Brave, Clean, and Reverent	Do Your Best	As an American I will do my best to be clean in my outdoor manners, be careful with fire, be considerate in the outdoors, and be conservation minded

2. Dress for Day Camp will be the camp T-Shirt, closed toe shoes, and either uniform shorts or shorts of comparable length or longer than 6inch inseam. Any questions about dress code should be directed to the Camp Director.
3. There should be no swearing or inappropriate language.

The duties and responsibilities of each Youth Staff member will be given prior to the first day of camp, as well as assistance and information needed to carry out those assigned duties. However, circumstances may arise where the Camp Director may ask for additional assistance to benefit the overall Day Camp. Our primary goal is a quality program for our Scouts.

The Camp Director reserves the right to cancel all or part of this agreement under the following conditions:

- a. In the event of unsatisfactory performance.
- b. For personal conduct not in accordance with Scouting principles.
- c. If camp attendance makes it necessary to curtail all or part of Day Camp.
- d. For any reason beyond the control of the Camp Director that necessitates the closing of the camp.

If you have any questions or reservations about anything that has been listed in this agreement, you should review this matter with the Camp Director before signing this agreement. If you agree to follow all of the camp rules as set forth in this agreement, please sign and date this Agreement below.
